

AB 2588 Air Toxics‘Hot Spots’ Emission Inventory Criteria and Guidelines Regulation Update

- as of July 17, 2007

Regulatory Process

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Public workshops held on March 28, April 3, and July 27, 2006, to discuss staff's proposal.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Staff Report released on September 29, 2006, for 45-day public comment period.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Board adopts amendments with modifications to "Hot Spots" Guidelines Regulation on November 16, 2006.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Draft changes made available for 15-day public review and comment on March 20, 2007, through April 13, 2007.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Regulatory package submitted to the Office of Administrative Law on July 16, 2007.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Office of Administrative Law approves regulatory package.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Secretary of State has 30 days to review and approve regulatory package.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Regulation becomes legally effective.

Regulatory documents can be found on ARB's web site here:

<http://www.arb.ca.gov/regact/hotspot06/hotspot06.htm>

A draft of the 15-day changes is here:

<http://www.arb.ca.gov/ab2588/2588quid.htm>

A listserve announcement will be made when the public comment period begins.

Please sign up to our listserve to track the progress of this regulation:

<http://www.arb.ca.gov/listserv/ab2588.htm>.

For more information, please contact Mr. Chris Halm (916) 323-4865, or chalm@arb.ca.gov.